Data Protection Policy

Effective from the 1 October 2022

Individuals have a number of rights in relation to their personal information – i.e. personal data – and these rights have been enhanced by the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). This Data Protection Statement describes how we at St Brendan's NS collect and process personal data, in accordance with the GDPR and the school's legal obligations generally in relation to the provision of education. Processing is the legal term used to describe various acts including - the collection, recording, organisation, structuring, storage, alteration, use of, retrieval, disclosure or transmission of information. This Statement applies to pupils, parents and guardians. By enrolling your child in and/or by attending St Brendan's NS you acknowledge and agree to the collection and processing of personal information by the school.

For your information this Statement outlines:

- Who we are and how to contact us
- What information we collect, process and retain
- How information is collected and processed and the purpose and legal basis for so doing;
- Sharing information with third parties
- Individual legal rights.

Who we are and how to contact us:

St Brendan's NS is a data controller responsible for personal data - i.e. information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person. St Brendan's NS processes personal data, i.e. the school collects, records, stores, retains and uses personal data. St Brendan's NS will respond to your questions in relation to this data protection statement and our approach to privacy. If you have any questions about this data protection statement, including any request to exercise your legal rights, please contact us using the details below:
secretary@loughshinnyns.ie – please put Data Protection in the subject box for any issue relating to data protection

Information & Third Parties

St Brendan's NS may receive from, share and/or transfer information to a range of third parties such as the following:

- The Department of Education and Skills
- TUSLA / the Child and Family Agency
- The National Council for Special Education
- National Educational Psychological Service (NEPS)
- Department of Social Protection and/or other state benefit providers
- An Garda Síochána
- School Insurance Provider
- Third Party Service Providers: We may share personal information with third party service providers that perform services and functions at our direction and on our behalf such as our accountants, IT service providers including, printers, lawyers and other advisors, and providers of security and administrative services, including data processing / cloud storage service providers.

Data Retention

We will only retain personal information for as long as it is necessary to fulfil the purposes the information was collected for, including any legal, accounting or reporting requirements.

Pupil Related	Retention Periods
School Register/Roll Books	Indefinitely Hold until Pupil is 25 Years Never Destroy
Enrolment Forms	Hold until pupil is 25 Years
Disciplinary notes	Never Destroy
Test Results – Standardised	Never Destroy
Psychological Assessments etc.	Never Destroy
SEN Files/IEPS	Never Destroy
Accident Reports	Never Destroy
Child Protection Reports/Records	Never Destroy
S.29 Appeals	Never Destroy
Interview Records
	18 months from close of competition plus 6 months in case Equality Tribunal needs to inform school that a claim is being taken
Staff Records
Contract of Employment	Retention for duration of employment + 7 years
Teaching Council Registration
Vetting Records
Accident/Injury at work Reports	(6 years to make a claim against the school plus 1 year for proceedings to be served on school)
BoM Records
BOM Agenda and Minutes	Indefinitely
Payroll & Taxation	Revenue require a 6-year period after the end of the tax year
Invoices/receipts	Retain for 7 Years
Audited Accounts	Indefinitely

Why, in certain circumstances, does the Data Protection Commission recommend the holding of records until the former pupil has attained 25 years of age? The reasoning is that a pupil reaches the age of majority at 18 years and that there should be a 6-year limitation period in which it would be possible to take a claim against a school, plus 1 year for proceedings to be served on a school. The Statute of Limitations imposes a limit on a right of action so that after a prescribed period any action can be time barred.

Transfer of Personal Information outside the European Union

St Brendan's NS may transfer the personal information we collect to countries outside the EU. Where there is no adequacy decision by the European Commission in respect of any such country that means that that country is deemed not to provide an adequate level of protection for your data.

However, to ensure personal information does receive an adequate level of protection we will in such circumstances put in place appropriate measures such as the use of model contractual clauses as approved by the European Commission to ensure personal information is treated by those third parties in ways that are consistent with respect to EU and Irish Laws on Data Protection.

Individual Rights

Individuals have several rights under GDPR which in certain circumstances are limited and/or constrained. These individual rights include the right, free of charge and subject to any limitations as may apply to:

- Request a copy of the personal information held about the individual.
- Rectify any inaccurate personal data held about the individual.
- Erase personal information held about the individual.
- Restrict the processing of individual personal information.
- Object to the use of individual personal information for our legitimate interests.
- Receive individual personal information in a structured commonly used and machine-readable format and to have that data transmitted to another data controller.

If you wish to exercise any of these rights, please contact us at the school as outlinedsecretary@loughshinnyns.ie – please put Data Protection in the subject box of email. St Brendan's NS will endeavour to respond to your request within a month. If we are unable to deal with your request within a month, we may extend this period by a further two months and we will explain why.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint to the office of the Data Protection Commission.
